3. As the Joint Industry Board maintains its principal office in this district and the various employee benefit plans are administered and maintain their principal offices in this district, venue lies in this district under §502(e)(2) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §1132(e)(2); and §301(a) of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. §185(a).

THE PARTIES

4. The plaintiff is the Chairman of the Joint Industry Board, the administrator of various employee benefit plans established and maintained pursuant to collective bargaining agreements between Local Union No. 3 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO (the "Union"), and employer associations and independent or unaffiliated employers in the electrical, elevator, sign, television, burglar alarm and other related industries. The Joint Industry Board maintains its principal place of business at 158-11 Harry Van Arsdale Jr. Avenue, Flushing, New York 11365.

5. The Joint Industry Board is the administrator and fiduciary within the meaning of §§3(16)(A)(i) and 3(21)(A) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§1002(16)(A)(i) and 1002(21)(A), of each of the following employee benefit plans: the Pension, Hospitalization and Benefit Plan of the Electrical Industry, the Dental Benefit Fund of the Electrical Industry, the Deferred Salary Plan of the Electrical Industry, the Educational and Cultural Trust Fund of the Electrical Industry, the Annuity Plan of the Electrical Industry, and the Health Reimbursement Account Plan of the Electrical Industry (collectively the “ERISA Plans”), and also the Joint Apprenticeship and Training Program. Each of the ERISA Plans is an employee benefit plan within the meaning of §3(3) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §1002(3), and a multiemployer plan within the meaning of §3(37) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §1002(37). Each of the ERISA Plans is also jointly administered by a board of trustees that is comprised of labor and management representatives who share equal representation in the administration of the Plans in accordance with §302(c)(5) of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. §186(c)(5).

6. The Deferred Salary Plan of the Electrical Industry (the “DSP”) is a tax-qualified profit-sharing plan with a cash or deferred arrangement within the meaning of §401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”). Pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement, employers are required to deduct a specified percentage from the weekly wages of each eligible employee covered by the collective bargaining agreement and to remit such amounts plus additional salary deferrals made at the election of the Employee (together, “Employee Contributions”), to the DSP, along with related payroll reports. The Employee Contributions are employee-elective contributions, which, but for the salary deferrals, would have been paid to the employees as wages. Employers are also sometimes required to remit employer contributions to the DSP on behalf of all covered employees (“Employer Contributions”), in addition to the Employee Contributions and without regard to any election by the employees. The Employee Contributions and the Employer

Contributions to the DSP are collectively referred to hereafter as “DSP Contributions.” Employers are required to send all DSP Contributions and related payroll data to the DSP in care of Mercer Trust Company (“Mercer”), the third-party record-keeper and investment manager retained by the DSP for such purposes. All DSP Contributions are allocated to individual bookkeeping accounts in the name of the covered employees, who are entitled to direct the investment of their DSP Contributions from among various investment alternatives selected by the Trustees of the DSP.

7. The contributions to the ERISA Plans and the Joint Apprenticeship and Training Program, but not the DSP, are collectively referred to as the “JIB Contributions.” The JIB Contributions with the DSP Contributions are hereafter referred to together as the “Required Contributions.”

8. The Joint Industry Board is the Administrator of all of the ERISA Plans and the Joint Apprenticeship and Training Program (collectively, the “Plans”). Under the collective bargaining agreements, signatory employers, including the Company, are required to remit the Required Contributions, as well as summaries of their payroll records.

9. The Joint Industry Board and each of the Plans are third-party beneficiaries of the collective bargaining agreements.

Bronx, NY 10470. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant to this action, the Company was engaged in the electrical contracting business within the metropolitan New York area. These reports are referred to as hereafter the "DSP Reports."

23. As Administrator of the ERISA Plans, the Joint Industry Board has adopted a delinquent contribution policy calling for the assessment of interest on late-paid contribution due and owing to the ERISA Plans, at the rate established by the ERISA Plans or in accordance with §6621 of the Code, 26 U.S.C. §6621.

24. The Joint Industry Board has also adopted a delinquent contribution policy calling for the assessment of interest on late-paid contributions to the Joint Apprenticeship and Training Program in accordance with §6621 of the Code, 26 U.S.C. §6621.

The Company's Failure to Remit Required Contributions

A. Unpaid Contributions

25. Upon information and belief, for all relevant periods, the Company employed employees who performed work covered by the CBA.

29. The Company remains obligated to pay the Required Contributions to all Plans due under the CBA that will accrue between the date this Complaint is filed and the date judgment is entered.

B. Interest on Required Contributions that Remain Unpaid or Were Paid Late

30. The Company paid the JIB Contributions and/or DSP Contributions late for various dates during the period of the weeks ending October 30, 2013, through December 25, 2013, and previously. Consequently, the Company owes interest on those late-paid Required Contributions.

31. By letters dated May 30, 2013, and November 18, 2013, the Joint Industry Board provided the Company with a detailed statements reflecting the interest assessed on late-paid JIB Contributions and/or DSP Contributions and demanded payment thereof.

32. To date, the Company has failed and refused to remit any interest payment.

33. The Joint Industry Board calculates and demands interest on late-paid JIB Contributions on a quarterly basis. Upon information and belief, the Company has paid Required Contributions after they were due for additional weeks beyond those referenced in the foregoing letters. Consequently, the Company owes interest on all such late-paid Required Contributions.

C. Other Amounts

34. Upon information and belief, additional amounts will continue to become due and owing during the pendency of this action as the Company continues to fail to pay, or timely pay, Required Contributions.

35. The Company remains obligated to pay Required Contributions to all Plans due under the CBA that will accrue between the date this Complaint is filed and the date judgment is entered.

45. As a direct and proximate result of the Company's repeated failures to discharge its fiduciary duties properly, the DSP and the participants and beneficiaries have suffered losses for which the Company is liable, pursuant to §409 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §1109.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

46. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs.

47. The Company's failure to remit the Required Contributions in accordance with the CBA is a breach of the CBA, thereby giving rise to an action against the Company pursuant to §301(a) of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. §185(a).
